

I miss you Atz! ☐ June 28, 1927 ~ February 22, 2011

Fred Fleming Jr. points excitedly to the the animal merry-go-round, while his sister Anne Marie stands by, and his cousin Charlie looks on. Fred's mother seems to enjoy it too! The animal merry-go-round was loaned by The Kraft Foods Co. during the summer of 1955.

Atz Fleming (left) and a friend looking at books on the library table. This was a board meeting for the Athaneum Club.

Dear Miss Kenan,

Thank you for the bookmarkers.
Thank you for the book too. I have read one of them. It was a good book.
The name for it was A Child's Garden of Verses. I have read to page 27 in the Easter Chimes. It is a good book I like it ever much. You have good books. I like the them lots.

Sincerely yours,
James Ernest Fleming