

Summary:

"Back in the 1920's, Slocomb Alabama, was like a television show; people were neighborly, crime was at a minimum, and life was good. But a terrible thing happened in 1928 that would shake the town's foundation: their beloved Professor Claud F. Avant had been murdered."

A True Crime book written by Eudon Holland and Laurie A. Palazzolo.

Audio file of Mr. Holland's mother Mertice Mae \(Armstrong\) Holland as she tells the story that inspired this book.

Note: We just received copies of this book 05 November 2012. We will process it as soon as possible. It is also on sale at Amazon .